

STUDY OF DEVELOPMENT AND TRY OUT OF MOTHER TONGUE ENRICHMENT PROGRAMME

Researcher
Sureshkumar T. Thakkar
Guide
Dr. JIGNESH B. PATEL

Major Findings of the Study

1. The Mother Tongue Enrichment Programme has increased the effectiveness of Mother Tongue.
2. This programme has enriched the linguistic knowledge of the student.
3. The students have developed interest in Mother Tongue. And they have been insisting on true wording in writing.
4. The students have been writing creative texts using synonyms, antonyms, idioms and proverbs from the Mother Tongue.
5. The students have been able to present their original ideas clearly through oral and written expression
6. The students are speaking and writing with the correct form of language.
7. The students have realized the importance of cultural heritage of any literature and used it.
8. Effects of emotional and sensory words on students' speaking and writing expressions have been observed.
9. The students have come to understand the special importance of Mother Tongue.
10. The students are reading Children's Literature with increasing attachment towards Mother Tongue.
11. The academic readiness and effectiveness of this programme has been seen to increase on the other subjects of the students.
12. The effect of value education has been seen in the student's behaviour.
13. Increase in the receptive power of the student has been observed.