

4. Providing funding and resources
5. Fostering a culture of innovation and entrepreneurship

Overall, the Department of Student Startup at Children's University plays a crucial role in helping young students realize their entrepreneurial potential and turn their ideas into successful ventures.

Activities Carried out:

1. Teachers Training Program cum Sensitization Workshop
2. Entrepreneurship Development Program for Toy and Child Centric Start-ups
3. SSIP Awareness Workshop in all Departments 1.0
4. SSIP Awareness Workshop in all Departments 2.0

Activity / Programme

| Description of Activity  | Photograph   |
|--|--|
| Teachers Training Program cum Sensitization Workshop The Teachers Training Program cum Sensitization Workshop on startup and innovation is a specialized initiative that aims to empower educators with the knowledge and tools to nurture entrepreneurial mindset and innovation among students. Through this program, teachers gain insights into startup culture, ideation, and business planning, enabling them to inspire and guide students in their entrepreneurial endeavors.   |   |
| Entrepreneurship Development Program for Toy and Child Centric Start-ups The Entrepreneurship Development Program for Toy and Child Centric Start-ups is a specialized initiative that provides aspiring entrepreneurs in the toy industry with the knowledge, skills, and resources to launch successful ventures. The program offers mentorship, industry insights, market research, and business planning support, fostering innovation and growth in the child-centric startup ecosystem in association with Centre of Entrepreneurship development, Ahmedabad. |  |

SSIP Awareness Workshop in all Dept. 1.0

The SSIP Awareness Workshop in all Departments 1.0 is a targeted program designed for social science postgraduate students, including MSW, Psychology, and Home science. This workshop aims to raise awareness about the Social Science Internship Program (SSIP), providing students with valuable information on internships, industry partnerships, and career opportunities within their respective fields, encouraging practical application of their knowledge.

SSIP 2.0 Sensitisation Workshop

The SSIP Awareness Workshop for all Departments 2.0 is a targeted program designed for social science postgraduate students, including MSW, Psychology, and Home science. This workshop aims to raise awareness about the Social Science Internship Program (SSIP), providing students with valuable information on internships, industry partnerships, and career opportunities within their respective fields, encouraging practical application of their knowledge in association with iHub, Ahmedabad...

